

2010

2nd Saturday Programs

Saturday, January 09, 2010	9-11am	Peregrine Falcons and the Art of Falconry -Matt Reidy, TPWD Wildlife Biologist will provide information on the peregrine falcon and their adaptations for survival, the natural history of the peregrine falcon, the endangered species act and why the peregrine falcon was in trouble, and information on the sport of falconry.
Saturday February 6, 2010 (1st Sat.)	6- 8pm	Star Party -San Antonio Astronomical Association Join the San Antonio Astronomical Association to view the early evening stars with high tech telescopes and see what is up in the winter sky. Bring a folding chair and a flashlight covered with red cellophane.
Saturday, March 13, 2010	9-11am	Solar Cooking for Spring -Monika Salyer-Solar Cooking International Solar cooking is the simplest, safest, most convenient way to cook food without consuming fuels or heating up the kitchen. Many people choose to solar cook for these reasons. For some in the world it is a life saving skill to have safe drinking water. Learn different methods and types of solar cookers. Make a mini solar cooker to take home.
Saturday, April 10, 2010	9-11am	Bugs, Bugs, and More Bugs - with the Bug Lady, Holly Camero invites you to look into the world of insects with hissing cockroaches, ox bow beetles, grub worms and butterflies. Kid Friendly Butterfly craft activity included
Saturday, May 08, 2010	9-11am	Celebrate Mother Earth with Apache Del Rio- South Texas Native American Dancing and Storytelling
Saturday, June 12, 2010	9-11am	TBD
Saturday, July 10, 2010	9-11am	Rocks, Minerals and Stones with Mr. Emmett Jackson How are rocks formed? Discussion of minerals and their formations. See his display of different types of minerals and semi-precious stones. Kid friendly activity of polishing rocks/stones.
Saturday, August 14, 2010	9-11am	Bicycle Safety on Trails with SA Park Police includes free water bottles, Learn about parts of the bicycle, taking care of your bike and trail riding safety. Bring your own bike and ride with the officers. Suggested for ages 5-12 years old.
Saturday, September 11, 2010	9-11am	Native Plants of the South Texas Brushlands , Hike with author and local botanist Patty Leslie Pasztor and learn about edible and native plant uses.
Saturday, October 09, 2010	9-Noon	Fall Fest, 6th Annual Bring the whole family for a fun filled Saturday morning activities such as Art in the Park, Texas Mammal Skins & Skulls, Flint Knapping, Live Snakes, Search & Rescue Dogs, Leaf Animals, Nature Tattoos and Water Conservation with many more activities
Sunday, November 14, 2010	6- 8 pm	Owl Prowl - Richard Heilbrun, TPWD Wildlife Biologist for an evening about owls, take a walk to the interpretive area where live barred owls will be called in with owl calls as they stake out their territory, Limited to 50 people, Call today to RSVP
Saturday, December 11, 2010	9-11am	TBD